Subject: M6H1 Harvey Response - Final PIO input for today's UPDATE
Date: Monday, September 4, 2017 3:14:18 PM
Importance: High

Ken Wagner, senior advisor to the Administrator for Regional and State Affairs, and a representative of TCEQ Chairman Shaw's office briefed the Mayor of Houston and other local officials this morning at the Houston Emergency Center. Afterwards, several media outlets joined Acting Regional Administrator Sam Coleman, Chairman Shaw and Kel Kelly, special advisor to the Administrator, to tour three Superfund sites targeted for Phase 2 inspections. The 3 sites scheduled for inspection observation were US Oil Recovery, Highland Acid Pits, and San Jacinto River Waste Pits. In the afternoon, a Congressional delegation led by Senator John Cornyn's office was to be briefed by EPA and TCEQ. Information included a recap of resources dedicated to the Hurricane Response, a summary of NPL site inspections in all the impacted counties, information on drinking water and wastewater systems, accomplishments and projections of work. Information on the recent Arkema facility activities was provided as well.
